

The Mantle So Green

ireland

The musical score is written on three staves in treble clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff contains the first five measures of the melody. The second staff begins at measure 6 and contains the next five measures. The third staff begins at measure 11 and contains the final five measures. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests and a fermata over the final note of the third staff.

As I went a-walking one morning in June
To view the green fields and the meadows in bloom
I espied a young damsel, she appeared like a queen,
With her costly fine robes and her mantle so green.
